BENJAMIN DISRAELI, EARL OF BEACONSFIELD, K.G.

ON of Isaac D'Israeli, author of Curiosities of Literature, of Jewish extraction; born in London 21st December, 1805; published his political novel, Vivian Grey, 1825; travelled in the East between 1828 and 1831; contested Wycombe in 1831, and Marylebone, 1833, both unsuccessfully; was returned for Maidstone, 1837; for Shrewsbury, 1841; for Bucks, 1847; member of Sir R. Peel's party until Peel became a convert to Free Trade, from which time Mr. Disraeli allied himself closely with the Conservatives, of whom he became the leader in the House of Commons after the death of Lord George Bentinck in 1848; conspicuous for his attacks on Peel in Parliament; Chancellor of the Exchequer in Lord Derby's first Ministry, 1852; and in his second, 1858-9; in 1859 brought in a Reform Bill which was defeated by the Whigs; again Chancellor of the Exchequer in Lord Derby's third Ministry, July, 1866; brought in a second Reform Bill, based on Household Suffrage, which was passed, 1867; on Lord Derby's resignation, February, 1868, became Prime Minister, which office he resigned at the end of the year; on Mr. Gladstone's Government resigning office, in consequence of their defeat on the Irish University Bill, March, 1873, Mr. Disraeli was commissioned by the Queen to form a Ministry, but declined to do so under the then circumstances. On Mr. Gladstone appealing to the country in 1874, the election returns placed him in a minority, and he resigned without meeting the new Parliament; Mr. Disraeli succeeded him as Prime Minister and formed his cabinet, March, 1874; created Earl of Beaconsfield, August, 1876; first Plenipotentiary for Great Britain at the Congress of Berlin, 1878, and K.G. Lord Beaconsfield's principal novels (besides Vivian Grey) are The Young Duke, Henrietta Temple, and Venetia, and, since his entrance on political life, Coningsby, Sybil, Tancred, and Lothair.

London, 1878.

THE RISING GENERATION—IN PARLIAMENT.

PEEL. "Well, my little Man, what are you going to do this Session, eh?"
D—LI (the Juvenile). "Why—aw—aw—I've made arrangements—aw—to—smash —aw—Everybody."

At this time Sir Robert Peel had resigned the Conservative leadership in the House of Commons, which was assumed by Lord George Bentinck, assisted by Mr. Disraeli.—1847.
No. 3.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE POLITICAL CHEAP-JACK.

"Now then, my Bucks,—let me have the pleasure of making you a few Presents,— an assortment of valuable Pledges, warranted never to break," &c., &c.

Mr. Disraeli was first returned for Buckinghamshire at the General Election in 1847.

No. 4.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE PARLIAMENTARY TOOTS.

Mrs. BRUNNEN (D.S.-4-1). "I think it convenient, TOOTS, to say to you, before the young gentlemen depart, that you appear to me to have reached the low-water mark of general contempt, and that there is not the least probability of your ever gaining another inch towards food-tide again. All your friends are ashamed of you; all your enemies rejoice over you; everybody is tired of you. In fact, TOOTS, you are, if I may express myself plainly, an unmitigated humbug, and a knave."

TOOTS (R.S.-11) continued. "It's of no consequence, thank you. It's all right. It's not of the least consequence in the world. Nothing is of any consequence, anywhere; I'm much obliged to you."

Mr. Disraeli, as one of the chiefs of the Opposition, severely criticised the conduct of Lord John Russell's Government.—1848.
No. 5.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

COCK-A-DOODLE-DOO; OR, THE GREAT PROTECTIONIST.

[008]

THE STATE OF THE NATION.
DISRAELI MEASURING THE BRITISH LION.

Mr. Disraeli's motion for a Select Committee to consider the state of the nation, in consequence of the repeal of the Corn Law was rejected by a large majority.—1849.
No. 8.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE PROTECTION "DODGE."

SCOFFING LANDHOLDERS (in a column and two rows), with a glance at the first-floor window,—"My de-er-est friends, I am ash-amed to app-ear to—free you, and to ex-pose my mis-er-able state. * * *

"I am a low-d-d-d prog-ress-i-ve re-acted to get-est mis-er-ry, con-ting in the con-fer-ation of the foreigner. There is a gen-est every of us as bad of as my-self, and the Count-ess is a—being united all along of free-trade Sir Robert Peel and Mister Cal-den. We've only took—by millions of money in the Bank, also an incr-ase of £3,000 on the Civil—est, also £27,500 on the Ex-ise, and £4,000 on the In-come Tax, pay the four Land-est-est," &c. &c.

ES The hollowness of the "Protectionist" grievance was shown by the exceptionally prosperous state of the Exchequer at this time.—1850.

No. 9.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

[010]

AGRICULTURE—THE REAL "UNPROTECTED FEMALE."

ES Although the Free Trade policy had proved a real benefit to the country, the Agricultural districts had not as yet participated in it.—1850.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

[011]

GULLIVER AND THE BROBDINGNAG FARMERS.

"He called his hinds about him, and asked them (so I afterwards learned,) whether they had ever seen in the fields any little creature resembling me?"—Vide "Gulliver's Travels."

☞ To compensate the Agricultural interests, Mr. Disraeli had moved to transfer £2,000,000 of Local taxation to the Consolidated Fund. The motion was lost by a small majority.—1860. No. 11.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

DRESSING FOR A MASQUERADE.

MR. D—SR—LI AS A GREAT PROTECTIONIST LEADER.

Mr. Disraeli, as the Farmers' Friend, made a motion in favour of the Relief of Agricultural Distress, which, however, was lost by a majority of 14.—1861.

No. 12.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE GHOST OF PROTECTION APPEARING TO MR. DISRAELI.

13 The Landowners and Farmers were still suffering from the repeal of the Corn Laws, and the efforts of Mr. Disraeli and the Conservative Party failed to procure from the Legislature any alleviation of their burdens.—1851. No. 13.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

"THE GAME OF SPECULATION."

(AS PERFORMED AT THE THEATRE ROYAL, ST. STEPHEN'S.)

Lord Derby became Premier this year, with Mr. Disraeli as Chancellor of the Exchequer and Leader of the House of Commons. The "Game of Speculation" was a popular drama.—1862.
No. 14.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

would be mindful of the Agricultural interests.—1852.
No. 16.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

A PLAIN QUESTION.

MR. BULL. "Now, Sir, don't let us have any more Derby Dilly Dallying. What are your Intentions towards Miss Britannia?"

At a meeting of the Liberal members called by Lord John Russell, it was resolved to press the Government for a declaration of its policy.—1862.
No. 17.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

AN EASY PLACE.

THE JUDICIOUS BOTTLE-HOLDER. "Well, Dizzy, how do you like your Place?"
Di—l. "O, jolly! Capital Wages, and only got to Carry out these Light Things at present."

Mr. Disraeli, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, adopted generally the financial arrangements of the previous Government, on the plea that his Party were in a minority.—1852.
No. 18.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

A BIT OF ANIMATED NATURE.

THE PROTECTIONIST CUCKOO IN THE HEDGE SPARROW'S NEST.

☞ The Militia Bill, which had proved fatal to the Whig Ministry, was carried by the Conservative Government by a large majority, and materially strengthened their position.—1852.
No. 19.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE EASTER RECESS.

DIZZY. "Oh, no! I'm not at all Giddy. I should like to go ever so Much Higher."

No. 22.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE POLITICAL CHAMELEON.

Mr. Disraeli and the Conservative Party were thought to be trimming towards Free Trade in anticipation of the General Election.—1852.
No. 23.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

"A DISSOLVING VIEW."

127 The result of the General Election was to leave the Conservative Party still in a minority. The triumph of Free Trade principles was complete.—1852.
No. 24.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

[025]

SOMETHING "LOOMS IN THE FUTURE."

128 Mr. Disraeli, in his address to the Electors of Buckinghamshire, had declared that it was the intention of Her Majesty's Ministers to do something in the future for the Agricultural Interest.—1852.
No. 25.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

“HEADS I WIN, TAILS YOU LOSE.”

“Sir, the meaning that we attribute to the words I have just read is, that, under the circumstances in which the House finds itself, it is in our opinion expedient that Parliamentary Reform should no longer be a question that should decide the fate of Ministries.” (Loud laughter at this capital joke.)—Vide Speech of CHANCELLOR OF EXCHEQUER, Feb. 11, 1867.

Mr. Disraeli introduced the Government proposals for Reform in a series of Resolutions, which were afterwards abandoned.—1867.
No. 49.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE HONEST POTBOY.

DERBY (aside.) "Don't froth it up this time, Ben. Good measure—the Inspectors have their eye on us."

A majority of the Cabinet had agreed to introduce an extensive measure of Reform, which was followed by the resignation of General Peel, and Lords Carnarvon and Cranbourne.—1867. No. 50.

FAGIN'S POLITICAL SCHOOL.

"Now, mark this; because there are things which you may not have heard in any speech which has been made in the city of Edinburgh. (Laughter and cheers.) I had—if it be not arrogant to use such a phrase—TO EDUCATE OUR PARTY. It is a large party, and requires its attention to be called to questions of this kind with some pressure. I had to prepare the mind of Parliament and the country on this question of Reform."—MR. DISRAELI'S Speech at the Edinburgh Banquet.

Mr. Disraeli had asserted that no Party could lay claim to a monopoly of Liberal principles—hence the Government were quite at liberty to deal with the Reform question.—1867.

No. 58

THE CONSERVATIVE PROGRAMME.

"Deputation below, Sir.—Want to know the Conservative Programme?"

RT. HON. BEN. DIZ. "Eh!—Oh!—Ah!—Yes!—Quite so! Tell them, my good Abernethy, with my compliments, that we propose to rely on the Sublime Instincts of an Ancient People!" [See Speech at Crystal Palace.]

✂ A great Conservative demonstration was made at the Crystal Palace in recognition of the growing unpopularity of the Government. Mr. Disraeli refrained from committing his Party to a definite programme.—1872. No. 70.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE TWO AUGURS.

DISRAELIUS. "I always wonder, Brother, how the Chief Augurs can meet on the opening day without laughing!"
 GLADSTONE. "I have never felt any temptation to the hilarity you suggest, Brother; and the remark savours of Sippahny."

1873 Mr. Disraeli was more successful as a leader of his Party or of the House of Commons than his great antagonist.

No. 71.

THE WINNING "STROKE."

PUBLICAN. "Ooray! Glad you've won, Sir."

DIZZY. "Thanks. I knew those SLIDING SEATS would upset 'em!"

Some portion of the Conservative success was supposed to be due to the Publican interest, and to the operation of the Bullot.—1874.

No. 74.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

THE GREAT "TRICK ACT."

RING-MASTER (MR. CROSS). "Now, then, Mr. Wittler, stand out o' the way!"

CLOWN (LITTLE WITTLER). "Oh ah, of course! Of course I gave 'er a leg-up, and chaff'd 'er shoes of course, and of course I'm to get nothing for it! That's what I call Wittler's allowance!"

!Exit, disgusted.

The Intoxicating Liquors Bill passed by the Government created much disappointment to their supporters amongst the Licensed Victuallers.—1874.

No. 75.

Original Size -- Medium-Size

A REAL CONSERVATIVE REVIVAL.

"We have little or no FISH, Gentlemen; but at least we have revived that great and Conservative institution, THE MINISTERIAL FISH-DINNER!!!"

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG LICENSE
PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase "Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg™ License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg™ electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg™ electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg™ electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg™ electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg™ works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg™ name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg™ License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg™ work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg™ License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg™ work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg™ electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg™ trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg™ electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg™ License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg™ License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg™.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg™ work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg™ website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg™ License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg™ works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg™ works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, “Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation.”
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you ‘AS-IS’, WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg™ work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg™ work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg™

Project Gutenberg™ is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg™'s goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg™ collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg™ and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 809 North 1500 West, Salt Lake City, UT 84116, (801) 596-1887. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg™ electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg™ concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg™ eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg™ eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility: www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg™, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
